

School Council Blog

What a fantastic Election Fever week we have had! Well done to everyone for your brilliant campaigns, and don't forget even if you were not successful this time, you still are a valued member of the Birches School Council.

Our first job was to vote on the top three posters that different children across the school had made as part of an anti-bullying campaign. The winners will be entered for the competition which is being run by Manchester Healthy Schools.

Beth and the School Council