

Top Tip for Communication at Home

Do the unexpected!

Give your child opportunity to tell you something's not right. Do something wrong on purpose.

Put your child in the bath with no water!

Put their socks on their hands!

Give them a cup with no juice in!

When your child reacts, praise them and say something like "oops" or "silly me" and put the situation right! Make it fun!

